

NORTH CAROLINA GLOBAL HEALTH ALLIANCE

The mission of the North Carolina Global Health Alliance is to advance North Carolina as an international center for research, training, education, program implementation, advocacy and business dedicated to improving the health of the world's communities. We engage academic, governmental, nonprofit and for-profit organizations in this collaborative effort.

André Anthony, Executive Director

Resources & Statistics

2022 Economic Impact Report

This is coming soon and will highlight NC's leadership as well as the importance of the global health sector to the state's economy.

18MM

HEALTH
WORKER
SHORTAGE BY 2030

1%

U.S. HEALTH
FUNDING
GOES TO NUTRITION

42

NEW HEALTH
TECHNOLOGIES
DEVELOPED
SINCE 2000

41MM

PEOPLE
IMPACTED ANNUALLY
BY NCDS

Source: Global Health Council

Background

The Alliance was founded in 2009 as a partnership between Duke University, North Carolina State University, The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, IntraHealth International, RTI International, FHI360 and the North Carolina Biotechnology Center.

Social links

Twitter: @ncglobalhealth

Facebook: @ncglobalhealth

LinkedIn: /north-carolina-global-health-alliance

